This year's Summit includes all of the following highlights and many opportunities to stay informed, get engaged, and take action — plus optional buffet lunches ($15 each) and a free Reception on Friday, 5–7 p.m.

Be inspired to take action through

- Keynote Presentations by State and Local Officials
- Legislative Updates, and
- Panel Discussions on
 - ◆ Green Investment
 - ◆ Frederick County Agriculture and Climate Change
 - ◆ Data Centers and Climate Goals
 - ◆ Green Schools
 - ◆ Building Efficiency and Electrification

Visit with dozens of Exhibitors and join one of these Breakout Sessions to meet the organizations and people who can help you take action and become part of the solution:

- Feeding Frederick County: How you can help create a resilient local food system
- Growing Green! Environmental Education and Outdoor Learning
- Using Federal and Local Resources to Improve Building Energy Efficiency and Create Healthier Buildings
- Bringing Nature Back to Your Community
- Sustainability Careers

Friday's Reception from 5 to 7 p.m. will be a great opportunity to meet and talk with presenters, sponsors, exhibitors, and like-minded participants who understand the urgency of mitigating our climate emergency.

PLUS, NEW THIS YEAR: view a climate-themed art exhibition and meet the artist at the Friday reception. The title of the exhibition is REALMS; the artist is Ali Syverson.

“Climate change is the single greatest threat to a sustainable future but, at the same time, addressing the climate challenge presents a golden opportunity to promote prosperity, security and a brighter future for all.”

BAN KI-MOON
FORMER SECRETARY-GENERAL OF UN
